Advanced training with François Combeau (Feldenkrais trainer)
In STOCKHOLM (Sweden)
April 11 - 15, 2018

“To live in freedom, breathe in freedom ...”

«Go beyond what is breathing, there you will find breath» (Shri Aurobindo)

"Breathing is a universal, dynamic process in which man is included. It manifests itself in us through respiration, apparent as inhalation and exhalation. This is indeed a two-way flow between the inner and outer worlds, a gateway to all. This dynamic process does not belong to us. It is a cycle triggered without any intervention of the mind and sustained beyond our control. Yet we can intervene through voluntary muscles which shrink or expand spaces and impose shapes."

Welcome to join the François Combeau group of Sweden in the advanced training taking place in Stockholm 2018.

François has been working here several years. With his permission, we now would like to extend the invitation to participants also living outside Scandinavia.

- Number of participants is limited to 30.
- We hope to record sound of all ATM's as we did for last 4 years. The recordings will be available as digital files for participants only.
- We work in two adjacent rooms/areas – one for ATM and one for FI in order to facilitate both the teaching of François as well as the learning of the participants.
- François finds it very important to follow up on our development during this training and make sure what each of us will take with him/her from this seminar. To make this possible, all of us need to participate all 5 days, all hours.

Do you want to participate?
